

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 2990

Introduced by Assembly Member Levine

February 24, 2006

An act relating to seniors.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL’S DIGEST

AB 2990, as introduced, Levine. Seniors: emergency preparedness.

Existing law provides for the licensure and regulation of, among others, community care facilities, residential facilities for the elderly, and adult day health centers, as specified.

This bill would declare the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation that would improve the emergency preparedness and response training within centers and facilities where persons who are at least 60 years of age are either clients of or participants in the programs of the center or facility.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to enact
- 2 legislation that would improve the emergency preparedness and
- 3 response training within centers and facilities where persons who
- 4 are at least 60 years of age are either clients of or participants in
- 5 the programs of the center or facility.
